

THE NEWS IN OGDEN.

Yesterday's Happenings in the Busy Junction City.

FIVE FAIR FRAIL FEMALES.

How They Are Dealt With in the Police Court—List of Real Estate Transfers Recorded Yesterday.

THE SALT LAKE HERALD BUREAU, No. 2411 WASHINGTON AVENUE, OGDEN, MAY 16.

Scott Anderson, the reputed temperance lecturer, employed in the county recorder's office, has been made an American citizen. On his arrival here he was met by a large number of friends and a large number of friends.

A couple of drunks appeared before Alderman Preslaw yesterday. Their pleadings are not real, but their fines are—$2.50, and leaving ten days' work on the streets.

The napping-loving public are looking forward with joyful anticipation to the approaching entertainment to be given by the celebrated Camilla Ueno next Tuesday evening.

The strawberry crop of Plain city was greatly damaged by frost last week. Peaches and apricots also suffered to some extent from the same cause, and the crop will be light.

The friends of General Nathan Kimball are disappointed at his failure to secure a place on the Utah commission. The old veteran deserves well at the hands of the Republican administration.

Hon. M. E. Post, of Cheyenne, ex-Secretary of the Interior, is becoming interested in Ogden's progress, and it is thought that he may eventually visit his friends in the Junction city.

J. H. Melosh, the well-known horseman of this town, is a happy man. His little one's voice resounds with unmitigated sounds of buxom strength.

The copious showers which have fallen recently have proved of inestimable value to the farmers and fruit raisers. The promise of bumper crops of fruit and cereals has not been so good for many years.

The work of grading Twenty-fifth street hill was temporarily suspended yesterday owing to the moist condition of the ground consequent upon the copious rainfall of the previous night, and which continued throughout the day.

Frank C. Stover, of San Francisco, a nephew of Captain Stover, of Tooele, and formerly a clerk in the railway mail service, hopes to introduce in this city the famous fire alarm system, and the Sibley engine company's fire apparatus.

The chamber of commerce has considered a proposition to establish a stove factory in this city. The proposition calls for a house of $10,000, and to erect a plant worth $30,000. They will guarantee to smelt from one hundred tons a year the acceptance of their proposition.

Ex-Congressman C. Brown, who runs the team for John A. Boyle and has a party runway last evening. But no harm was done except that one of the horses was slightly lame. Half an hour after the occurrence the animals were again doing their equestrian business.

Colonel J. G. Tyler, our popular Democratic postmaster, who sent in his resignation about seven weeks ago, thinks that the department is not in a position to accept of his resignation. He is waiting for the department to appoint his successor.

What is the cause of the loss of the public's faith? Or is it?

The return of Colonel Swan from the east and his appearance at the chamber of commerce meeting Tuesday evening, infused considerable life into that waning and slow-moving body. Half a dozen men of Swan's energy and business capacity would make this city of great pretensions in business.

An annual meeting of the stockholders of the Salt Lake Valley & Eastern Railway company, called for the election of directors for the ensuing year and the transaction of such business as may come before said meeting, will be held at the office of the company in this city on Wednesday, June 3, 1896, at 10 o'clock a.m.

Before His Honor the Judge.

Frankie Leno, arrested on a warrant charging her with residing in a house of unwholesome reputation, was fined $50, costs included, in Alderman Preslaw's court. She was given till Friday next to pay the fine. If she does not, jailer Baxter will lock her up.

Leaster Floyd, charged with the same offense, was sentenced as usual. Her next appearance failed to impress the official gentlemen.

Mabel Thomas, an Officer Baxter calls it, residing in one of "them houses." So did May Lloyd—she is a "madam"—hence she was mulcted to $250 fine.

Debra Norton, a "resident," got $50 to pay. She paid it.

Altogether they are a blooming and successful lot. There are plenty more left for his honor to interview.
